DECLARATION

1. I am Elias Borges, the agent of record on this matter. On or about March of 2009 a Notice of Allowance and Fee Due was received in our office relating to this matter, which was dated February 17, 2009. This notice was promptly sent to the applicant and diarized for payment. Due to inadvertence, the payment was not sent by the due date. A notice of abandonment was later received and diarized for reply. Due to a temporary closing of our office and sick leave, the petition to revive the abandoned application was not forwarded until now.
2. There was no intention to abandon the application, and the application went abandoned as a result of inadvertence.
3. The whole of the delay in reviving the application in response to the notice of abandonment was unintentional.
